

Creating a well-designed website will influence how people perceive your business making it easier for customers to learn about the products and services you offer. A website can also bring you more business when people search the internet looking for your products and services.

Template Website Design

- Web design service and set up of a standard 5-page website
- Direct interaction to provide input, revisions & approvals
- A library of thousands of free images to enhance your web design
- Maps and directions to your physical location
- Submission to Google® so visitors can find your website
- Custom Web Design packages are available for a more distinct look
- Ongoing site updates available in half hour increments per month for additional charge

Custom Website Design

- Offers a more unique website design that can be tailored to your business needs
- Use your current website hosting provider
- For creating new websites or for revamping the look & feel of existing sites
- Design & set up of a complete custom 5-page website (additional pages available for a fee)
- Direct interaction with your web development team to provide input, revisions & approvals
- Dynamic navigation including drop down menus and mouse-over effects
- Integration of your multimedia (Flash) content including video and music

Large or small, if you're looking for a cost-effective way to stand out from the rest of the online crowd the web design team at Machalek Communications, Inc. is the right place for you. Speak with one of our business development consultants to obtain a quote or more information about our custom website designs.